Dear Tribal Leader:

On April 26, 2017, President Trump issued an executive order directing Interior to review national monument designations established or expanded since January 1, 1996, that meet certain criteria¹ to determine whether each designation or expansion conforms to the Executive Order's policy. See E.O. 13792, 82 Fed. Reg. 20429.

On May 5, 2017, Secretary Zinke released a list of National Monuments being initially reviewed. The list is available as an enclosure to this letter and is also available at the following website: <https://www.doi.gov/pressreleases/interior-department-releases-list-monuments-under-review-announces-first-ever-formal>.

I invite you to attend one of the listening sessions listed in the enclosure to provide your input before the Secretary provides an interim report to the President on the June 15, 2017, deadline established in the Executive Order.

If you would like to submit written input, please submit your comments by email to consultation@bia.gov at your earliest convenience. Comments from the public are also being accepted at www.regulations.gov or by mail to Monument Review, MS-1530, U.S. Department of the Interior, 1849 C Street NW, Washington, DC 20240.

Sincerely,

Michael S. Black

Dear Tribal Leader:

On March 13, 2017, President Trump issued an executive order to reorganize the Executive Branch of the U.S. Government. See E.O. 13871, 82 Fed. Reg. 13959. The order aims to improve the efficiency, effectiveness, and accountability of Federal agencies.

As Secretary Zinke has publicly noted, the Department of the Interior (Department) has not undergone a comprehensive reorganization in approximately 100 years. To inform our implementation of this Executive Order, we would like your input on how the Department, and the Federal Government as a whole, if appropriate, could be reorganized to help streamline services to tribes and better fulfill the Federal Government's trust and treaty obligations.

I invite you to attend one of the listening sessions listed on the enclosure to provide your input. If after attending the sessions, you would like to provide written comments, please provide them to consultation@bia.gov by Saturday, July 15, 2017.

Sincerely

Michael S. Black
